C&I Progress/Accomplishments

- An online version of our elementary education program is currently available
- MAT doubled in enrollment during year 2 and is addressing a state-wide need for elementary teachers
- The first completers of the recently reinstated Physical Education sequence will graduate in May
- An undergraduate certificate in online teaching is now available
- Our distance supervision approach has received national recognition, most recently from Harvard University
- The summer STEM camp continues to grow and flourish

EDLEA Progress/Accomplishments

- A year-long strategic visioning and planning process, along with current program prosperity, has produced the following observations:
- At M.S. level, at historic high as the result of multiple university/school district Leadership Academy partnerships. At Ed.D level, on par with historical average. Leadership academies provide a feeder pipeline; at the same time, a trend toward school district-based cohorts has emerged.

EDLEA Progress/Accomplishments

- Fort Leavenworth at M.S. level stable, with increased competition. K-State Olathe M.S. is level and projected to remain stable to slightly increased. Growth will come as PSM enrollment increases and as EDACE gains access to corporate settings.
- The online M.S. program is seeking new enrollments through international partnerships involving the Confucius Institute and direct contact with Jiling University.
- Overall enrollment enhancement is being pursued through a special coordinator for strategic partnerships.

SECSA Progress/Accomplishments

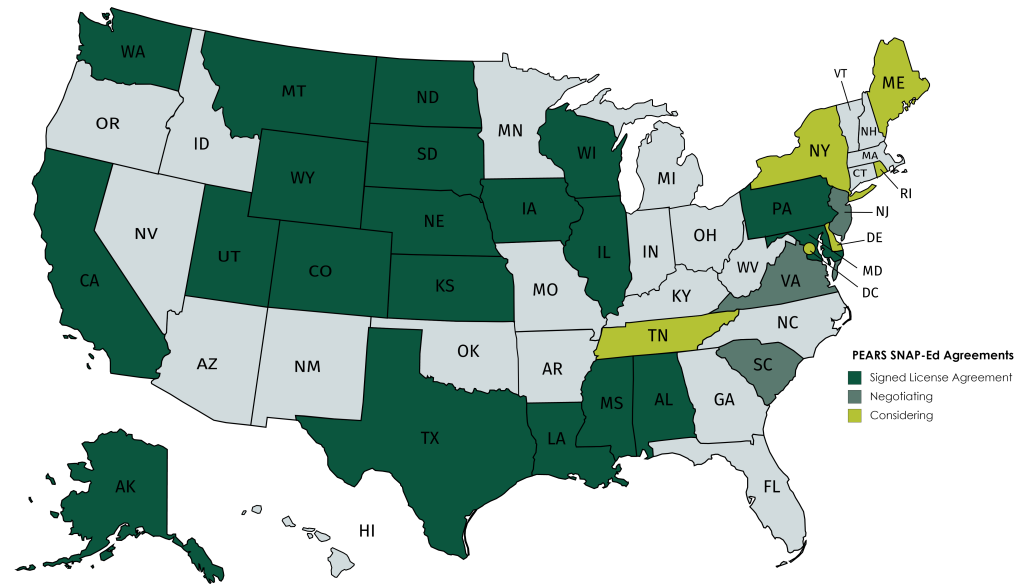

- Counseling programs offered at Olathe using Zoom, interactive video technology
- Doctoral program in Counselor Education and Supervision and MS program in School Counseling fully accredited by CACREP through 2024
- Leadership in Academic Advising
- Fourth Summer School Counseling Camp—2017, 350 attendees
- Offered our first micro-credential—Individual Plans of Study, approximately 60 participants (Summer 2017)

NACADA Progress/Accomplishments

- 13,000 plus members, world wide
- NACADA Research Center at Kansas State University
- Partnership with the Gardner Institute

OEIE Progress/Accomplishments

- Educational and Program Evaluation services nation wide – more than 60 active projects so far in FY18
