

Boundary Crossings in Children's and Young Adult Literature

Saturday, April 21, 2018

9:00 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

K-State Student Union, Flint Hills Room

Schedule of Events

9:00 am – Poetry in the Classroom

“As the Unknown Becomes Known: The Wonder and Power of Poetry”
Dr. Vicki Sherbert, Associate Professor, Curriculum and Instruction

10:00 am – Diversity and Inclusion in Action

“Desegregating the Imagination: A Manifesto for Anti-Racist Children's Literature”
Dr. Philip Nel, University Distinguished Professor, English

“Developing a Multicultural Storytime at the Manhattan Public Library”
Laura Ransom, Children's Services Coordinator, Manhattan Public Library

11:00 am – Keynote Speaker

Jacqueline Woodson, the 2018-2019 National Ambassador for Young People's Literature and 2015 Young People's Poet Laureate, will speak on “Behind the Books.”

12:00 pm – Break for lunch

1:30 pm – Crossing Boundaries of Gender, Sexuality, and Medium

Mandy Moore (MA '18), Kaylee Kipp (BA '19), and Kathleen Wallace (MA '18) will present papers.

Attendance fulfills
“Service to the Profession:
Professional Growth”
requirements for
Education majors.

Jacqueline Woodson

Registration is free but seating is limited, so
register online today:
www.ksu.edu/chalc

Participate in ChALC's Diverse Book Drive! Bring a new or gently used book for young readers that fosters diversity and inclusion for donation to the Boys and Girls Club of Manhattan.

Sponsored by K-State's Children's & Adolescent Literature Community (ChALC), K-State's SGA Diversity Programming Committee and Fine Arts Fees, and the K-State Department of English
Questions? Contact chalc@ksu.edu.