

Kansas State University

Young Writers' Workshop 2017

Success Summary

93% of participants agreed or strongly agreed they felt encouraged to continue writing creatively after the workshop.

100% of the participants felt their instructors were encouraging and helpful.

Young writers mentioned they "really enjoyed being around people that shared similar interests."

As one participant noted, the instructors were "very welcoming and made sure that everything was clear."

93% of the young writers felt the visiting authors were engaging and educational.

95% overall satisfaction with our home for the week, the Marianna Kistler Beach Museum of Art.

One young writer wrote that the visiting writers "were a lot of fun and it was nice to get introduced to new styles."

Participants noted that they enjoyed writing in the galleries.