

100% of the participants felt that their instructors were helpful and engaging

Participants said:

“Everyone was super supportive and encouraging, which made me more confident!”

“The speakers were different, and their unique personalities really contributed to the lessons they taught.”

“I gained useful writing skills and some new friends.”

“The Workshop taught me many skills that I hope I will continue using for the rest of my life, regardless of whether or not I continue writing.”

100% of the young writers felt that the guest writers were educational and engaging

93% of participants said that they felt encouraged to continue writing creatively after the workshop

100% of the young writers felt satisfied with our home for the week—the Marianna Kistler Beach Museum of Art

