

	EXPLORE: Freshman Year (3-9 credit hours in English)	BUILD: Sophomore Year (10-18 credit hours in English)	REVIEW: Junior Year (19-27 credit hours in English)	LAUNCH: Senior Year (28-39 credit hours in English)
English Advising, Coursework, and Networking	Discuss your aspirations and long-range academic plans with your Advisor	Build relationships with your advisor, professors, and supervisors	Consider whether graduate or professional school may be for you	Apply for graduation
	Focus on your coursework	Focus on your coursework	Focus on your coursework	Focus on your coursework
	Build relationships with your advisor, professors, and supervisors	Enroll in one of the English Dept's professional writing options (500, 510)	Study for GRE, LSAT, or other exams	Apply for graduate or professional school
	Research study abroad opportunities	Consider studying abroad	Talk with professors and others about recommendations	Talk with professors and others about recommendations
	Research internships, scholarships (Chapman, McNair, Develop.Scholars)	With your advisor, identify your gaps and plan to fill them	Do an information interview about a career of interest	Polish resume, assemble portfolio, draft cover letters and/or personal statements
English Dept. Career English Programming	Join the English Ambassadors or an English club	Participate in a student group	Summer or in-term internship	Begin job search in the semester before graduation
	Attend the Fall Alumni Career Panel	Attend the Fall Alumni Career Panel	Attend the Fall Alumni Career Panel	Attend the Fall Alumni Career Panel
	Attend Dept. lectures, readings, social events	Attend Dept. lectures, readings, social events	Attend the Spring Career Seminar	Attend the Spring Career Seminar
University Career Programming	Visit the Career Center	Attend a Career Meet-Up or Job Fair	Attend a Career Meet-Up and/or Job Fair	Attend a Career Meet-Up and/or Job Fair
	Take career questionnaires: what do you like to do? what do you want to be able to do?	Draft a resume; talk it over with Career Center or advisor	Review and rethink your plans Update resume; talk it over	Update resume; talk it over
	Enroll in K-State 360; create a Handshake account	Use Handshake to follow internship and job opportunities	Schedule mock interviews	Schedule mock interviews
Professional Development	Find a part-time job that requires writing, reading, research, analysis, marketing, and other skills	Find a part-time job that requires writing, reading, research, analysis, marketing, and other skills	Find a part-time job that requires writing, reading, research, analysis, marketing, and other skills	Find a part-time job that requires writing, reading, research, analysis, marketing, and other skills