RATIONALE: In order to accommodate a capstone seminar into the English curriculum, we need to raise the number of hours required of English Literature and English Creative Writing students 3 hours to a total of 39 hours for the English Major. There will be no change to the number of required house for English and Teaching Certification majors, whose program of study will continue to be 39 hours.

IMPACT: This change will affect students completing a degree in Secondary Education in the College of Education in addition to an English major in “Literature with Teaching Licensure.” Dr. Gail Shroyer, Department Head of Elementary and Secondary Education, has been notified and supports the changes.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Fall 2011

School of Family Studies and Human Services

ADD NEW COURSE

FSHS 303- Developing Intimate Relationships

Credits: (3)

This course will explore topics related to intimate relationships, which include attraction, communication, casual encounters, cohabitation and conflict. Students will critically evaluate current theory and research concerning the elements of healthy relationships. This course will include a didactic and experiential opportunities for the development of a body of knowledge concerning committed relationships, the development of interpersonal skills, increasing personal awareness, and establishing appropriate expectations.

When Offered

Intersession

RATIONALE: The proposed addition of this course is to make it a standing course in the School of Family Studies and Human Services; the course has previously been taught as a topics course in FSHS 300.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Summer 2011

IMPACT ON OTHER UNITS: None

ADD NEW COURSE

FSHS 305 – Family Violence

Credits: (3)

The course will focus on the different types of violence within the family system: child abuse/neglect, dating violence, intimate partner violence, and elder abuse. Students will learn about the common forms of abuse, prevalence rates, risk factors, impact, and beginning interventions on family violence. Attitudes and myths regarding family violence will be explored through critical thinking.

Need/demand: The course has drawn students from a variety of majors such as Sociology, Psychology, Family Studies, Gerontology, Law, and Criminal Justice which shows a general interest in the topic of family violence.
