

STATE OF KANSAS

PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

TO THE PEOPLE OF KANSAS, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, in November 1911, Mrs. Henry Jackson Waters, wife of the sixth president of Kansas State Agricultural College, called together a group of wives of department heads to discuss forming an organization for faculty women and faculty wives; and

WHEREAS, the Kansas State Agricultural College Social Club was established to promote interdisciplinary social interactions for members; and

WHEREAS, the Kansas State University Social Club has been continuously active under eight university presidents and their wives; and

WHEREAS, membership in the Kansas State University Social Club has been expanded over the past century to include both men and women serving in numerous positions associated with the University; and

WHEREAS, the Kansas State University Social Club has performed many philanthropic projects and currently sponsors four scholarships for undergraduate and graduate students; and

WHEREAS, the Kansas State University Social Club has served a vital role in the social life of its membership; and

WHEREAS, the Kansas State University Social Club is celebrating its 100th anniversary on November 1 2011:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sam Brownback, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF KANSAS, do hereby proclaim November 1st of 2011, as

Kansas State University Social Club Day

in Kansas and urge all citizens to join in this observance.
