Classified Senate President's Notes

Hello everyone!

My name is Dale Billam. I am your Classified Senate President for 2012-2013. This is an exciting time for all of us. The general election is November 6. I encourage you all to vote. Remember that your vote counts, especially at the state and local levels. The 150th celebration is fast approaching. Look for many different ways to celebrate this major milestone in our university's history. The celebration has a website that has timelines for events and for nominating outstanding Kstaters. Thank you for the opportunity to serve you as President of Classified Senate. Please contact me or your Senator with any questions or problems. Go Wildcats!

All-University Campaign-Give Now!

The All-University Campaign is going now until Nov 16th. If you haven't had time to sign up to give, there is still time. The All-University Campaign is an internal funding effort ran by campus faculty and staff volunteers focused on participation for all employees. This is your opportunity to support the areas of the university you care about the most. There are several ways to giving such as payroll deduction, multi-payment pledge, and Outright cash gift. For more information, please visit the official website at: <http://www.found.k-state.edu/auc/index.html>.

K-State Sesquicentennial Celebration

It is a celebration of American's first land grant institution and Kansas' first public university.

The event kicks off on February 14th, 2013, and will be a full 9-month celebration. Some of the Sesquicentennial projects will include: 150th Academic Scholarship Fund, Pictorial History Book, Call Hall producing unique "150th" flavor of ice cream, Sesquicentennial Time Capsule, and much more.

There will also be a Wildcat March Exhibition which involves Wildcat statues. These Wildcats will be exhibited all over town during the 9 month celebration. This is very similar to the Chicago Cows on Parade Art Exhibit. Only 30 Wildcats are available to march around. All proceeds from this will go towards the Sesquicentennial Scholarship Fund. For more information and updates, please check out the website: <http://www.k-state.edu/150/>

THOMAN'S 40 YEARS

As a senior in accounting at K-State, Jack Thoman applied to work in the K-State Student Union in 1972. After graduation, he continued at the Union, becoming a full time employee that same year. He now serves as Union Assistant Director in the business office. "I didn't expect to have a career here. In school, my professors told me I would change jobs three to four times. Next thing you know, I'm here 40 years later," Thoman said. Throughout the last 40 years, Thoman has had his fair share of fun. Thoman eagerly claimed he has enjoyed having a career in a college setting. "I like the cyclical nature of the job. It's fun to see students come to town, graduate, and come back to visit. College town life is great."

DERO FIXIT

Your K-State Student Union is now offering all the tools necessary to perform basic bike repairs and maintenance with the Dero Fixit, located outside the North Dining entrance of the Union. Campus bikers are now able to do anything from change flat tires to adjust breaks for free. The tools and easy-to-use air pump are securely attached to the stand with stainless steel cables and tamper-proof fasteners. Hanging the bike from the hanger arms allow the pedals and wheels to spin freely while making adjustments.

The Dero Fixit is part of the Union's ongoing efforts to advocate sustainability. In addition to promoting biking on campus, the Union also recycles several different materials and uses many environmentally-friendly products in general operations. The facility also has a building-wide control system to efficiently control heating and cooling. A water bottle filling station was recently installed on the first floor of the Union to provide quick, clean, and green hydration.

For additional information about the Dero Fixit, visit union.k-state.edu or call the Union Director's Office at 785-532-6591.

HISTORY OF THE UNION

Take in a brief overview of Union happenings throughout the years at the "History of the Union" display in the historic Forum Hall. "History of the Union" exemplifies the Union's mission of putting students first and encourages guests to create their own memories within the Union.
